Memorial Services

This service may be of great help a few weeks or months after the funeral or on a significant anniversary by when feelings are less raw. Sometimes an interment of ashes happens following the service. The memorial ceremony is an opportunity to gather together and celebrate, to give thanks for the life of your loved one. Treasured memories, stories, readings, tributes and music can be shared together.

Interment of Ashes

We are happy to be contacted regarding a ceremony of interment of ashes, the fee for this is £50.00.

About Myself

This is to let you know something about me and, hopefully, to help put you at ease when I take a ceremony for you.

I am a Londoner by upbringing and now live in Dagenham. I have taken funeral ceremonies for more than twenty years. Each one is bespoke, uniquely designed to honour your wishes, be they traditional or modern in outlook.

My work takes me across East London, Essex and beyond.

My aim is to offer you the freedom to both celebrate the life of your loved one and say goodbye.

Your wishes and choice of ceremony

I have extensive resources for both readings and music that may give expression to your feelings at this time.

There are readings & resources on the web site www.phoenix-funeral.co.uk

ORDERS OF SERVICE

I am very happy to offer advice with this or to make arrangements for these to be printed - cost from £60 for 50 copies (including colour picture of your loved one)

Bereavement

I understand and respect that we each experience grief in a unique way.

For some there will be shock, anxiety, anger, guilt, disbelief, depression or apathy; others feel relief that their loved one is at peace and rest.

My work continues in offering professional bereavement support following the funeral. I co-ordinate a counselling service giving help with bereavement, grief and loss. Please do not hesitate to contact me for details by telephoning 020 8984 9887. There are extensive resources to be found on the web site:-
